ELECTION DAY QUIET

FOOTBALL TEAM OF 22 PLAYERS PROVES PUZZLING TO WILL

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 5.—Went to see one of the modern football games. And the thing that struck an old timer was that on every play there would be 22 different men facing each other.

They could go in, and come out, in fact, that's what tired 'em out, was going in and out so much. I imagine baseball if every time you wanted a hit you could send in Ruth. Every time you could send in Speaker. Ruth could go telephone and come back and bat again. The good pitcher could stay out till they got three men on bases, then come in and strike 'em out, then go eat hot dogs till three more got on, then come back in again. Or imagine a prize fight, every time one got hit send in another fighter. Football don't need referees, they need United States census takers. And that's what is drawing the crowds. People want to see how many boys attend each college.

An Old Alumni,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Delinquent voters will not have the opportunity of blaming the weather if they fail to show up at the polls today. The day started out in an ideal manner and gave every evidence of continuing so throughout the rest of the day.

Snow fell during last evening, those who were about during the later hours of the evening report. This is the second snowfall reported this fall.

Pa New observed another high Pennsylvania license tag today, bearing the number P7428. It is improbable that the 1,000,000 mark will be reached during the remainder of the year, as there are less than two months to go.

Community Chest workers are hard at the task of trying to wind up the annual fund campaign this week. It is expected that the goal of $69,500 will be reached at the report meeting Wednesday noon in the Y. M. C. A.

It's not too late to vote yet today, if you haven't been to the polls. The polls do not close until seven o'clock.

From the gun shot reports heard about the countryside, there are a considerable number of persons who are taking election day for a tour of the woods in search of small game.

Neshannock township road supervisors are putting the road from Highland avenue to Walmo in good shape for the winter. This road, used as a detour all summer was badly worn.

Globes have been placed in the light posts on the new North street bridge. Pa New learned from a Penn.-Ohio Electric company official this morning that the lights will not shine to-night because one piece of equipment is lacking. However, the company expects this part soon and electricity will be turned on shortly. The lights burning at night will enhance the new span immensely.

Brookhart Tells Senators About Wet Dinner Party

Assails Enforcement Of Prohibition Laws Under Present Program

SAYS LITTLE FELLOW GOVERNMENT TARGET

Urges Hoover To Remove Secretary Mellon—"Get Big Violators"

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A new picture of lobbying activities in which New York capitalists tried to influence legislation at a "wet" dinner party for senators, and a demand for the removal of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon featured an expose of prohibition conditions today by Senator Smith W. Brookhart, the so-called "Wild Man From Iowa."

Battle Little Fellow
While blaming Mellon for failure of prohibition enforcement, Brookhart declared the real reason was the apparent effort of the government to make prohibition a law against little fellows. He demanded enforcement of prohibition against the rich and prominent—the big fellows—if the dry law is to be a success.

His discussion of the dinner party gave the senators a choice morsel of gossip. Brookhart told how Otto Kahn, New York capitalist, sitting beside him at a party where silver flasks of liquor were distributed, tried to talk him out of sponsoring an anti-railroad bill. Kahn failed but the party otherwise seemed to have been a huge success.

HIRING EYANSON CAUSED TROUNCED

Inquiry Into Lobbying Practice Is Resumed Today By Senate Committee

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Having publicly and spectacularly spanked one of its own members, Senator Hiram Bingham (R) of Connecticut, for putting a paid lobbyist on the Senate payroll during the writing of new tariff rates, the Senate turned its attention again today to investigating further lobbying about the capitol.

No more drastic rebuke has ever been administered any member of the Senate than that handed the tall Connecticut senator for his action in employing Charles L. Eyanson, the $10,000-a-year executive of the Connecticut Manufacturers' Association, as his "secretary" and aide in the rewriting of the Fordney-McCumber rates on products in which Connecticut is vitally interested.

To Reopen Inquiry
The vote by which the resolution of censure was passed was 54 to 22. Only the most regular of the regular Republicans and those whose political fortunes are regarded as safe in their respective states voted against the resolution, which set forth Bingham's action as tending to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute, and as contrary to good morals and ethics.

Today the inquiry was slated to reopen with J. A. Arnold, manager of (Continued On Page Two)

British Premier Speaks Glowingly Of U. S. Reception

MacDonald Tells House Of Commons Of Visit To United States

OPTIMISTIC ON WORLD PEACE

Believes Great Good Will Come Out Of Contacts Of Two Peoples

By HARRY R. FLORY
International News Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Nov. 5.—To a House of Commons filled to overflowing with the legislators of Britain and interested spectators of every nationality, Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald expounded today the fruits of his history-making mission to America.

In an address charged with hope and optimism for the eventual creation of a world without war, the British premier reported to his parliament in detail on his voyage to America. He was eloquent in his appreciation of the welcome bestowed upon him by New York and Washington, and fervent in his praise of the republic accorded him by President Hoover and Congress.

Extols Welcome
"No ambassador could have received a warmer welcome; no government could have opened the doors of their minds and hearts wider than that of America," he declared.

"Although some of the matters dealt with by President Hoover and myself might easily have aroused old prejudices," he continued, "I found nothing but thoughtfulness and a desire to cooperate in placing the facts and the positions justly before the country."

"I tried by the medium of personal contact and direct address to establish a new relationship between two peoples, based on the mutual understanding of common objects to be pursued and the natural differences to be respected."

"I must leave the result to fructify in a policy of actions as time goes on."

The premier spoke from the governmental bench to the right of the speaker's throne. From time to time he leaned on the massive mahogany desk in front of him where the "dispatch boxes" of parliamentary proceedings, and the historic mace—symbol of sovereignty—lay before him.

New Yorkers At Polls Today To Name New Mayor

Jimmy Walker, "Dapper Dan Of Broadway" Openly Predicts His Re-election

LARGE NUMBERS AT POLLS EARLY

La Guardia Forces Claim Victory By At Least 100,000; Has Been Bitter Campaign

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Voters of New York City trooped to the polls today to decide, among other local questions, who is to be mayor for the next four years.

Re-election of Mayor James J. Walker, Democrat, by a large plurality was quite generally predicted. Tammany leaders, who supported him, said he would win by upwards of 550,000.

The Republicans, however, are also claiming victory. Fiorello H. La Guardia, the Republican-Fusion candidate himself said:

"I will beat Walker by better than 100,000 votes."

Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for mayor, was silent concerning his prospects. Richard E. Enright, Square Deal Party candidate did not appear to have much hope.

Expect Large Vote
Perfect weather, clear and brisk, brought the voters to the polling booths early in large numbers. A heavy vote was indicated. The registration was 1,550,110, or 320,991 more than it was in the last mayoralty campaign, when Walker's plurality was 402,123. Voting machines were used throughout the city for the first time today. The result is expected to be known shortly after the polls close at 6 p. m.

Extra details of police were stationed at all polling places as a precaution against irregularities. Republican leaders made eleventh hour charges that Tammany may attempt to "steal" the election. Police Commissioner Grover Whalen issued a general order directing all members of the department to report at midnight (last night) and to remain on duty until 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The betting on the result of the election has been light. Most of it has been on Walker pluralities.

Peace Nearer In Battle On Tariff

Coalition To Submit Long List Of Amendments Sought Without Debate

MAJOR BATTLE WILL LIKELY BE LIMITED

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Peace negotiations in the Senate battle over the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill assumed tangible shape today when the Democratic-Progressive Republican coalition started preparation of a long list of amendments which the "old guard" Republicans will be asked to accept without debate.

The coalition program is to be laid before Senator Reed Smoot (R) of Utah, chairman of the finance committee, who has indicated a willingness to accept many coalition proposals as the only means of breaking the tariff deadlock and enacting a bill in the near future.

Will Limit Fight
With all factions agreeing a bill cannot be completed for months unless the usual long Senate debates on hundreds of minor tariff schedules is curtailed, there appeared strong likelihood that within the next few days the tariff fight would be limited to a comparatively few major questions.

The power of Senators Borah (R) of Idaho and LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin is expected to be felt in the attempted settlement. They have been tacitly selected as spokesmen for the progressive Republican group which is committed to sharp boosts in agricultural tariffs with few increases for industry.

Twelve Patrol Boats Mobilized To Prevent Landing Booze Cargo

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Twelve patrol boats of the customs harbor squad, mobilized suddenly, waited today off the coast to prevent the landing of $2,000,000 in liquor designed for the Thanksgiving and Christmas "trade" in New York City. The armada was manned by the full equipment of 129 members of the enforcement bureau. They were prepared to battle with the rum runners, if necessary.

Radio messages from two British boats and one French rum boat, intercepted by customs officers, led to a hasty mobilization. It was the first time the New York customs fleet has been mobilized and sent to sea since the unit was formed two years ago.

The "dry" armada was strung along the Long Island, New York and New Jersey coasts.

Flow Of Molten Lava From Volcano Santa Maria Traps Many In Their Homes

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, Nov. 5.—Every available relief agency today was working under the personal direction of President Chacon to alleviate the suffering of the hundreds made homeless by the eruption of the volcano Santa Maria.

Exact estimates of the death toll exacted by the swift-flowing lava flowing down the sides of the volcano were impossible. However, it was believed between 50 and 100 persons lost their lives when trapped in the path of the volcano's lava flow.

An airplane observer who flew as low over the crater as he dared, reported that the volcano's activity was continuing and that the course of the main flow of lava was toward the sea.

Numerous large coffee plantations were completely wiped out. Property damage was estimated in excess of $2,000,000.

Homeless and wounded trekked into this city today in every possible conveyance bringing numerous tales of horror.

The volcano Santa Maria is 12,300 feet high and overlooks the Pacific ocean. It is 70 miles northwest of this city. It has intermittently shown signs of activity since 1902 when it erupted and destroyed Quetzaltenango and other towns, but the present eruption has caused more damage than any time since then.

Citizens Ballot Today On New Voting Machines; Weather Is Ideal

(International News Service)
The fan-fare of political oratory by the illumination of torchlight still ringing in his ears, Mr. U. S. Citizen today wended his collective way to the Pennsylvania polling booths to register his approval of this issue and his disapproval of that, climaxing one of the most lack-lustre campaigns in decades.

As the booths opened this morning, it was evident that a great portion of the electorate had decided to forego the exercise of their franchise in favor of the golf-course, field and stream, the family automobile or other diversions.

One word only could fully express the state of mind of Mr. Citizen with regard to the elections today. That word was "apathetic" with a small "A."

Lack of Interest
The lack of interest, perhaps, was excusable. Only two prizes of statewide importance had decided to forego the exercise of their franchise in favor of the golf-course, field and stream, the family automobile or other diversions.

Virginia Supplies First Test Since 1928, Of Republican Power In South

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—In the quietest off-year election in years, Virginia held the spotlight of national political interest today.

Voters in the old dominion are going to the polls in enormous numbers to elect a governor and a full state ticket, ending a campaign such as has not been witnessed south of the Potomac in more than half a century.

Will Show Feeling
The result is expected to furnish an illuminating insight into the state of political feeling generally throughout the South—and particularly into the absorbing question of whether the anti-Smith revolt last year has been quenched, or whether it still burns brightly enough to menace democracy's hold on the South.

Virginia supplies the first test since the memorable convulsion of 1928. State issues have been largely relegated to the background in Virginia's gubernatorial campaign, and the Smiths and anti-Smiths have gone to the mat with a fervor and feeling that has challenged the attention of both national parties.

On one side there is the regular Democratic organization backing the candidacy of Dr. John G. Latham. On the other, there is a strong coalition, made up of the normal Republicans and the bitterest of the (Continued On Page Two)

ACQUITTAL STIRS WORLD COMMENT

(International News Service)
DRAGUIGNAN, France, Nov. 4.—Although a free man by the verdict of a jury which acquitted him, although he admitted having deliberately killed his mother because he could not bear to see her undergo the agony of slow death from cancer, Richard Corbett today presented the pitiful figure of a man who has nothing to live for.

"I would do just the same again," he said today with tears in his eyes. "Mother suffered atrociously and I know today that she has pardoned me in heaven."

"The verdict of acquittal makes no difference to me," he went on. "There is nothing more in life for me. It would have been better if I had been condemned for I no longer have my mother."

Greatly Attached.

Corbett, the son of an English banker, was greatly attached to his French-born mother, his father having died soon after his birth. When he became of age he elected to become a French citizen and lived in this vicinity with his mother.

Throughout the trial sympathy was with Corbett but the verdict resulted in a storm of controversy all over the world. Another victory had been won by those who feel that a man has a right to kill in order to put a fellow human out of misery resulting from illness.

But to Corbett, neither vindication nor sympathy have the effect of easing the wound caused by the loss of his mother.

senators. He named a handful of senators who attended the party at which he said flasks of liquor were passed out as favors.

Brookhart intimated that the party was held to influence legislation. Among those present, he said, were Otto Kahn, the New York banker, E. E. Loomis, of J. P. Morgan and company.

Among the senators present, he added, were Moses (R) of New Hampshire, Smoot (R) of Utah, Gooding (R) of Idaho (deceased) and William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania.

Brookhart said Kahn had talked legislation to him at the dinner, discouraging his intention at that time to sponsor a bill to "squeeze billions of dollars of water out of railroad valuations." He told too, how some one else had spoken to the late Senator Frank T. Gooding against his plan to sponsor a "long and short haul freight rate" bill.

The Iowa however, asserted that prohibition conditions were greatly improved over the old saloon days.

Brookhart complained that the entire New York-Canadian border was devoid of dry agents with immigration and customs officials given the task of halting the flow of contraband liquor from Canada into the United States. He held Mellon responsible for this condition.

"There should be a prohibition patrol force along the border in New York," said Brookhart. "Who is to blame for this condition? I'll tell you. His name is Andrew W. Mellon. We voted him $50,000,000 to increase and improve the prohibition force and he turned it down. He didn't want it. While Mr. Mellon is the chief prohibition enforcement officer, I want also to call the attention of President Hoover to the fact that he has the say over Mr. Mellon. He should remove Mr. Mellon and put some one in his place, like General Smedley Butler, who means business in the enforcement of this law."

Blames Government

Brookhart blamed prohibition's failures on the effort of the government to enforce the dry law only against "little fellows." He called on the diplomatic corps to give up its liquor supplies and announced his readiness to enforce prohibition against the full wine cellars of the diplomats by law.

He first read an editorial statement by Arthur Brisbane which said that "Everybody knows the prohibition law is for the little fellow."

"The trouble with prohibition enforcement and all law enforcement is that there is too much of the feeling that the law is for the little fellow," he added. "My purpose is to advocate the theory that the law is for the big men as well as the little fellows. This idea of the law being for little fellows has caused nearly all the failure there has been in prohibition enforcement."

Tried To Get Big Fellows

He declared Brig-General Smedley D. Butler had failed in enforcing the dry law in Philadelphia because he tried to get the big fellows.

"Butler failed when he tried to enforce the prohibition law against the big fellows in the big clubs and big hotels," said Brookhart, "because his superiors didn't sustain him. If they had sustained him, he would have cleaned up Philadelphia. But they decided in Philadelphia that the prohibition law was only for the little fellows."

Brookhart praised President Hoover's attitude toward prohibition and also that of Vice-President Curtis and Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador. Then he made his threat against the diplomatic corps.

"If the other diplomats do not adopt a similar position on prohibition to that taken by Sir Esme Howard," Brookhart declared, "I am ready to compel them by law to take the same position as that of the British statesman."

lina. Democratic finance chieftain, conferred with Senator Smoot today in an effort to bring their tariff programs more in harmony. Senator Harrison (D) of Mississippi also assumed a leading role in the compromise movement.

Power Demonstrated

The coalition again demonstrated its power when an amendment of Senator LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin was adopted, reducing the tariff on synthetic camphor from the 1922 rate of six cents a pound to one cent. The Senate also slashed the menthol tariff from 50 cents, the Fordney-McCumber rate, to 30 cents.

The determination of some members of the coalition to make drastic reductions in the level of the Fordney-McCumber rates appeared to be a stumbling block to compromise with the "old guard."

Although some regulars are willing to write a tariff bill upon President Hoover's program of relief of agriculture and a comparatively few "silk industries," they do not want to disturb the bulk of the Fordney-McCumber rates.

The Senate took up consideration of the duty on china clay again today. Many southern senators are supporting a tariff boost, on the ground that they cannot now compete with English clay in the New England markets. Senator George (D) of Georgia, who is leading the fight, declared that many states, including Georgia, the Carolinas, Tennessee and Ohio, would profit by additional protection.

How strange that the Senators who hate naughtiness are the only ones who have found evidence of it in Washington.

anti-Smith Democrats, aided, supported and encouraged by Bishop James Cannon Jr., that redoubtable cleric who is credited with no little part in the turning of four states of the so-called solid South into the Hoover column last year. The coalition candidate is Prof. William Mosely Brown.

Exciting Campaign

The coalitionists, taking their cue from Bishop Cannon, have fought to keep alive the anti-Smith sentiment that sent Virginia into the Republican ranks a year ago for the first time since reconstruction. They have shouted "Smith-Raskobism" from the Potomac in the north to the Great Smokies in the south, and asserted that the regular Democratic organization that supported Smith and now is supporting Dr. Pollard is still dominated by "Smithism" and "Raskobism" and "Tammism."

Prohibition, religion and the racial issue have all entered into the campaign with a virulence comparable to that of a year ago.

Bitter Struggle

The Democrats have charged the coalitionists with injection of the religious issue again, although both Dr. Pollard and Dr. Brown are Protestants. The coalitionists have countered with accusations against the Democrats of raising the racial question. Placards carrying the picture of Oscar DePriest, the negro congressman from Chicago, and some of his radical utterances on the race question, have been circulated throughout the state. Both sides have thrown mud on the prohibition issue, although both candidates are dry.

Both sides went to the polls today predicting victory.

The regular Democratic leaders anticipate a winning margin of about 50,000 for Dr. Pollard. The coalitionists claim Dr. Brown will win although by a lesser plurality. About 25,000 is their prediction. That is the same figure by which Hoover carried the state.

Few workers could be seen at the polls, and here and there a candidate could be seen checking up on the total number of votes cast. It seems certain that the election boards will have an easy time this evening, and by 11 o'clock every city precinct should be reported.

In New Castle two councilmen, a city controller, four school directors are being chosen. In the county at large a district attorney, a sheriff, a register and recorder and a jury commissioner are to be selected. In addition to this there are many ward and precinct offices to be filled.

The polls close at seven o'clock this evening and voters should remember that with such a small percentage of the vote cast at noon, a rush will undoubtedly be seen between four and seven o'clock.

dent prophecies of political seers are realized.

The voting machine question alone served to prevent election day from being practically meaningless. In thirty-four of the sixty-seven counties, electors were voting for or against adoption of the machines. The Pennsylvania elections association estimated that approximately 75 per cent of the state's qualified electorate were approving or disapproving the proposed installation of machines. Practical politicians thought that ratio entirely too high.

the committee that he was testifying under oath. At one time Senator Blaine (R) of Wisconsin reminded him he was subject to criminal prosecution if found to be telling the committee untruths.

Will Delve Deep

New correspondence between Arnold and his associates will be gone into by the committee. Already, under the leadership of Senator Walsh (D) of Montana it has been revealed from correspondence that Arnold and associates attempted to influence tariff votes of the two Florida senators, Fletcher and Trammell, Democrats. Letters taken from Arnold's files and read into the committee record connected him with a number of efforts to influence senatorial opinion. One letter, written to Arnold by G. S. Fletcher of Miami, Fla., head of a fruit growers' organization in Florida, was to the effect Fletcher would come up to see "my friend, Herbert Hoover, if things get to rocking up there."

Turning to his chart of the celestial sphere, he notes the exact declination of the object and sets the graduated declination circle of the telescope accordingly. Next he notes the right ascension of the object as given in the chart; compares it with the astronomical clock to get the difference in right ascension; for the moment turns the hour circle of the telescope to the proper hour angle and the telescope is in the field of view.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM FOR THE MUSIC CLUB

The regular meeting of the Music club was an event of Monday evening at The Castleton.

Miss Gerberich, head of the department of music of Slippery Rock State Teachers college, presented the program. She possesses a voice of wide range, rich in quality and depth of tone. Her interpretation of the Aria "Face Mio Dio" from "La Forza del Destino" by Verdi, was that of a finished artist—in this number she displayed fine dramatic ability.

Her French group displayed a velvety smoothness of tone and clear diction.

Miss Gerberich presented a group of German songs and perhaps her test number of the evening was Schubert's "Du Bist Die Ruh". This was followed by a group of well chosen English songs, which were charmingly rendered.

She possesses a charming personality, and was compelled to respond to many encores.

Miss Sanderson, who is also associated with the Slippery Rock State college, was the accompanist. She possesses unusual ability, as an accompanist and at all times gave splendid support to the singer.

The next meeting of the club will be November 18, instead of November 11.

Ghosts Of New Street.
Russia Tries Farming.
100-Story Building.
And They Did Drink.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features
Syn., Inc.)

For the first time in 10 years the stock exchange was open on Sunday, brokers winding up transactions of a desperately busy week, preparing for the grand reopening this morning.

Gigantic orders for today have been pouring in since the close on Thursday, some to buy, some to sell. Buyers and sellers will take turns rejoicing and regretting. The country's business will go on as usual.

Wall street is quoting Henry Clews' advice to young speculators: "Watch the old speculators." Clews ran a carefully managed brokerage office and got rich, because he knew enough to let gambling alone.

Young speculators should visit the back door of the stock exchange in New street, at midnight, and talk to the ghosts of old dead speculators that whisper how they once were rich and lost everything.

They might learn a good deal there, but they won't. Knowledge comes from experience.

While we talk about farm relief in Washington and supply genuine relief in Wall street, Soviet Russia makes real experiments.

Russia developing gigantic national farms, with modern machinery, plans a complete revolution in farming methods.

Twenty-five million small farms that feed Russia's population, and cover one-sixth of the earth's surface, will be changed to big scale farming on a basis that would double the crops, using half the land.

Our farmers would not care for that, too much danger of being wiped out. Farmers like the men cows, barns, fields, plows, agricultural machinery, idle and rusting 11 months in the year.

They would not become salaried government agrarian officials, even if they made more. Russia at least is trying to do something. We are trying to walk on eggs, doing nothing, without driving farmers from the Republican party.

The one hundred-story building has arrived. F. H. Ecker will build it, for the Metropolitan Life Company, on the block adjoining the Metropolitan's fifty-story tower in Madison Square, New York.

That is progress since the period of the Philadelphia centennial when Whiteley Reid celebrated his acquisition of the Tribune and started New York with a nine-story tower.

The 100-story tower to be used for Metropolitan Life employees only will house 30,000 of them, carrying them up the first 13 floors on moving stairways.

Washington awaits Senator Brookhart's promised revelations concerning a senatorial dinner, not dry.

A New York broker named Fahey is supposed to have tempted the senators at a private party, and according to Senator Brookhart, they did drink. Everybody knows that Congressmen drink and that prohibition is for the little man. But, it is unpleasant to talk about it.

Wall street's earthquake week proved that New York's billionaire banks can be useful in emergencies.

Brokers' loans have been reduced by two billions, four hundred million dollars. While "out-of-town banks," as Wall street call the rest of the country, were calling loans, New York banks were lending a billion and a quarter.

Without that lending, on securities, which acted as a cushion, you might have seen a real panic.

Alexander Sztaron, a young Communist, dies in a Hungarian prison, on a hunger strike, being the second to die in that fashion.

The strike ending in death is a protest against Hungary's present government. If the dead man now looks down, surveying this world that has lasted more than a thousand million years, and has another billion years to go, he probably feels that it was a mistake to take one little political situation so seriously.

However, it takes many deaths to create liberty, as it takes many chewing earthworms to create fertile soil.

In Oklahoma, Jeff D. Harris, 65 years old, ardent dry, thought it his no official position, no warrant. But he suspected Farmer Oscar Lowery of bootlegging, raided his farm and killed Lowery.

A jury convicts Harris of manslaughter, leaving the sentence "from four years to life" to the judge.

The prosecuting attorney threatens if the sentence is light, to put Harris on trial for another killing, that of James Harris, Lowery's brother-in-law, killed in the same raid.

The convicted man's problem is complicated by evidence of witnesses that no liquor was found on the farm and both men were killed as they held their hands in the air, begging for mercy.

Prohibition hatreds are almost as intense as religious hatreds.

Mr. Taft offers $100 for the best plowing by farmers in Putnam County, New York. Each farmer will have one acre allotted to him and four and a half hours to plow.

No assistance allowed in changing plow-points; 14-inch furrows, seven inches deep, to be required. Evenness of furrows and squareness of corners will count.

All interesting and archaic, but, in real farming, there will be no man trudging four and a half hours behind a pair of horses, scratching up

Sun sets tonight 4:55. Sun rises tomorrow 6:33.

Today is election day. So many important things depend upon election day and most people do not give them the consideration they demand or should get.

No matter how thin you slice it is baloney just the same.

Mr. Pinchot is back from a trip to the jungles hunting wildcats or sumpin and says he will be heard from during the coming winter. Personally we have heard as much from him as we care to hear.

You must see the great open spaces to realize what a void can be, but you can get some idea of it by observing a grinning boy with two front teeth out.

Seeing every one else writing that I would too. Am not so good but seeing reading "The Specialist" feel joking like myself—Did you read it? Don't cost much at Metzler's—But what I was going to say is I have a couple of little boys myself and there is a lot more on the street and the police department are just aching for some place to put up traffic lights, especially since taking one down at Laurel avenue, so if they want to, can put it in my back yard as all these little boys I spoke of like to play traffic cop, etc., and would be as useful there as the one at Park avenue.

Just had a call on the phone that my wife's brother is in jail. Wishing you the same. I remain, Yours truly, M. P. S.

Wet get a great kick out of some politicians expressing themselves publicly on the prohibition question. And many of them get it over big with the very ones they do not expect to fool. There have been men elected on prohibition votes who get terribly muddled up with liquor afterwards.

Cigarette stock was not affected by the panicky market recently. That's one thing that not only is booming but will boom more as time goes by.

A FENCE TO KEEP CHICKENS OUT OF A HOG WALLOW DOESN'T AFFECT EAGLES
The world slowly becomes more decent—which means that more and more people become as decent as the best ones.

What causes the advance in civilization? The ambition to "be someone"—the normal man's desire to win the approval of his fellows, his natural inclination to mimic his betters, and his need of self-respect.

One can always dig a living out of the land and there will be plenty of land to dig when livings cannot be had in the cities. However, there will be no eight-hour days and five-day weeks at big pay. Bootleggers in Chicago had to reduce the price of their hooch from twenty to forty dollars a case because those who lost in the stock market could not afford to pay the high prices. It seems, too, as if a financial slump might hurt the bootlegging profession quite a bit.

Subsidy Of Campus Sports Blamed On Alumni Bodies

Public Demand For Spectacular Contests And Alumni Enthusiasm Are Sanction Methods Which May Cause Sport To Suffer

Charges that college athletes who appear in the big contests are becoming a part of a professional system produce a wide variety of public comment. The report by the Carnegie Foundation, containing the results of investigations covering a period of years, has inspired some suggestions that there should be a housecleaning, but there is a general feeling that as long as there is a public demand and an enthusiastic alumni and undergraduate body a subsidy of sport will be sanctioned.

"American football—the cornerstone of college sports," says the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE, "now commands an aggregate annual 'gate' of around $50,000,000. It is big business. By football is the college advertised and kept before the world. The large student bodies are attracted in some measure to institutions, it is contended, by the success of the team. There will be argument that if sports have harmful influence they likewise have their good points which may outweigh the doubtful. The Carnegie bulletin naturally will give rise to much discussion. Football, however, may be depended upon to stage a goal-line defense. The bulletin is likely to become a storm center, but the result cannot well help but be wholesome."

"The dubious element is the colleges' insistence that football players are all students," avers the BALTIMORE EVENING SUN, with the further query: "Why cannot that insistence be eliminated? Football is a profitable industry. People like to watch it and will pay great sums of money to watch it. Why should not the colleges operate this industry and collect the profits? Since they are already in the business, they might as well make all they can out of it."

"Considerable of the objection to present-day football is based apparently on the theory that it is too enjoyable to be permitted," remarks the CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, which, however, holds that it might be better managed by Morris Gest in collaboration with Jack Dempsey, and possibly some day it will be. The LITTLE ROCK ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT states that subsidizing of college athletics has been exposed by learned men after it has been an open secret for 20 years, and that paper concludes: "So long as alumni and alumnae, too, for that matter—demand that their alma maters be Bigger and Better, thus reflecting their own magnificence, we can expect subsidized athletics. Can you imagine 50,000 alumni and alumnae in a $100,000 stadium rising as one to cheer the appearance of the professor of physics?"

"But what can be done about it, or what should be done?" asks the NEW YORK SUN, with the further comment: "Nobody can imagine for a minute that the institutions and persons indicted by Dr. Pritchett are going to disappear or even change their nature or characteristics. There will be no return to Acadian beginnings of American sport." The ABERDEEN, WASH., DAILY WORLD believes that "intercollegiate athletics, especially football, are too deeply rooted to be torn up, and as long as they continue, so will commercialism and subsidizing."

"The people demand big spectacles, patronize games where winning teams play, idolize the successful players and demand a form of entertainment that has become a huge commercial enterprise. If people demanded reform, instead of the Western Conference being subsidized, and withheld their patronage from all except clean, amateur athletics," in the opinion of the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS, "the reforms would come soon enough."

Justification for college assistance for athletes is found by the NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE, which argues: "If there is no objection to the help granted non-athletic students—and we hear of none—who should that same help be denied to other students who need it, merely because they play in the college games?" The OAKLAND TRIBUNE is convinced that "so far as California and Stanford are concerned the charges are both minor and vague," and it points out that "in the way the two colleges and many others are accepting the charges, throwing open their books and instituting inquiries, there is assurance that the report, instead of detracting from the reputation of the game, will aid in putting it on a higher level."

"It seems that the Carnegie Foundation is asking too much of the colleges," says the FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM. "It would require superhuman decision and determination to abolish football, and abolition of the game as it is known today would be the result of entire removal of the conditions which the Foundation report describes." Public demand for the present system is recognized by the FLINT DAILY JOURNAL, while the MONROE, MICH., EVENING NEWS points out that "the best insurance against the ills suggested in the Carnegie report was written for the Western Conference when the one-year residence rule was adopted." The SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE, however, refers to the time Iowa was disciplined by the Conference, and states that "if the Carnegie report is accurate, the very schools that held up Iowa to scorn are themselves guilty of unethical practices."

"Occasionally there develop cases where students are compensated in some way for their athletic services, but these exceptions are the ones that prove the rule," avers the TEXAS KANA GAZETTE. The ERIE DISPATCH-HERALD holds that "the really reprehensible practices can be suppressed, as they have in the past, by giving them publicity." The ST. PAUL DAILY NEWS quotes the Carnegie report as showing "a swing back to the ideal of amateur sport," and the RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER feels that "the situation as revealed in the investigation may call for some remedial measures in certain cases."

"There is an indefinable lure and appeal in college athletics today which professionalized sports can never compete with," declares the CHARLOTTE NEWS, while the LINCOLN ARGUS-LEADER comments: "Several institutions have been inclined directly and indirectly to subsidize athletics. This does not encourage good sportsmanship."

"The report might affirm," in the judgment of the RICHMOND NEWS LEADER, "from the most notable precedent, that too much athletics ends in too little. The Greek games attest this. As long as they exhibited only the physical fitness of the mass of the people, they were the glory of the peninsula. The very life of the people was stimulated by their sports. It was only a stern monotheist like Xenophanes who would say, 'These things do not make fat the dark corners of the city.' Soon the honors heaped on the Olympic winners began to allure that professionalism began to creep in. Within a period almost as brief as that in which the games had become famous, they declined to a minor place in the life of the people. Whereas Pindar himself had shaped odes to honor early winners, the plaudits their successors reaped in victory died out in the amphitheater. The warning could not be more pointed. The road on which the overzealous are carrying college athletics is the road to discredit."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

MAN PROPOSES—GOD DISPOSES.

When tempted to complain of the "breaks" in business, this story of Rabbi Akiba, which Brian Brown tells in "The Wisdom of the Hebrews" might be well recalled.

The good Rabbi set out on a journey, taking with him an ass, a rooster and a lamp. At nightfall he reached a village where he sought shelter, but without success.

"All that God does is done well," said the Rabbi, and proceeding toward the forest he resolved to pass the night there. He lighted his lamp, but the wind extinguished it. "All that God does is done well," he said. The ass and the rooster were devoured by wild beasts; yet still he said no more than "All that God does, is done well."

Next day he learned that a troop of the enemy's soldiers had passed through the forest that night. If the ass had been brayed if the rooster had crowed, or if the soldiers had seen his light, he would surely have met with death; therefore he said again, "All that God does is done well."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

A PHILOSOPHER IS ROBBED

A thief broke into his room one day And carried his watch and his purse away.

Looked at him sleeping, and thought with a smile, "Well, I guess I have all that he owns worth while. You could almost say I have stripped him bare."

So he closed his grip and he left him there.

The victim woke, he missed his things. His purse, his watch and his diamond rings.

His coat and vest, his trousers and shoes. All stuff which anyone's apt to lose. And he counted his losses, and said: "Why fret? I am left with much which he couldn't get."

"All the wisdom I've learned from books—Is safe from the cunning of stealthy crooks. Though a thief at night in my room may break There is much I value he cannot take. What a terrible crime would this robbery be. If the man could have stolen one friend from me!"

"Suppose it were possible thieves could find A way to enter the human mind And steal faith and thought and the dreams of men. Instead of the stuff which is bought, and sold, Then they could say with a cunning smile They had stripped a man of the things worth while."

In the above list of eight new cases and in the forty-one to come before the court tomorrow, the majority of the complaints are wives, the principal grounds being cruelty and desertion.

Manufactured exports of $1,967,000,000 are not to be ignored. The close balance in imports and exports is shown in figures for the year. We sold to other countries $3,849,000,000 and bought from them $3,361,000,000 worth of goods. HOSPITAL DOCTORS ADVISE QUICK WAY TO END COLDS

Many Here Use Pleasant Way at Home to End Head Colds, Coughs, Chest Colds

By choosing a method that not only removes congestion but helps restore the breathing passages to a strong, healthy condition, P. C. Adams—like hundreds of New Castle people—has found the quickest and surest way to get rid of a disagreeable cold.

Mr. Adams had neglected his cold, hoping each day it would "cure itself." Instead it got worse, spreading down into his chest. Then he sought advice from the clinic, where doctors gave him double doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. In a few hours he felt greatly relieved, and that night he could breathe freely through both nostrils and coughed very little. The next morning he felt like a different person—rid of the "feverish, grippy" feeling—and in another day or so, doctors report, he was completely free from the cold.

Note: See other cases being reported daily in this paper—all certified by the attending physician.

Ayer's Pectoral was hospital certified as the best of different widely used methods tested for head colds, coughs and chest colds because it gave the quickest, surest relief—with absolute safety. It is now featured by all leading druggists.

"MY NEIGHBOR TOLD ME--"

Characteristic of Oldsmobile ownership everywhere is a certain spirit of neighborliness about motor cars—an expressed desire to share a good thing with others. This active owner loyalty is probably the most conclusive proof that could be found of the long, faithful service that Oldsmobile cars give their owners.

Thousands of messages, evidence of the universal high regard which Oldsmobile owners have for their cars, have been received at Olds Motor Works. Here are a few, telling why these owners bought their cars and why they are increasingly happy in their ownership.

"Oldsmobile's all-around high-class performance is the best in its price field. I think it's the most car for the money. I notice that all the owners I meet speak highly of its easy riding, smoothness, speed... and the semi-conservative styling of its bodies."—Marysville, Ohio.

"I became interested when you came out with your new car a year ago, and have since asked all owners I happened to meet for their opinion of Oldsmobile. I found that with not one exception all would buy Oldsmobiles again. That was enough for me. I tried the car, found that it rode easily, handled easily on the road or in traffic, and had plenty of speed. In addition, it was also mighty good-looking and priced right. I'll buy another one when I get ready for a new car."—Minneapolis, Minn.

"Oldsmobile owners boosted the product to me. Their low gas and oil consumption, and the fact that Oldsmobile is a General Motors product, sold me very strongly on the car."—Milwaukee, Wis.

These friendly notes, selected at random from the many, are typical of owner opinion the country over. Ask your own neighbor—just as one friend to another—what he thinks of his Oldsmobile. And he'll tell you in his own way the same story of fine performance and dependable service that is causing thousands of buyers to select Oldsmobile.

The VIKING
—the new 90-degree V-type Eight at medium price—is built in the Olds factories, by Oldsmobile craftsmen, and sold through Oldsmobile dealers. As $1995 for all models, f. o. b. factory, Lansing, Michigan, it is an outstanding value in its field as the popular Oldsmobile Six, the fine car of low price.

FLYING TO MISFORTUNE

A faint light glimmered through the trees. As his steed drew nearer Peter noticed that the light grew brighter. There to his surprise he discovered that it was the rays of a lamp that were shining out brightly from the window of a home. Peter tried to tell Moon-Moth what it was, but unheeding, that fellow flew steadily on.

"We don't care what is, boy," said he earnestly. "It is light, and we must follow it, wherever it may be."

"But this light is right inside of a house and perhaps the window is not open. Then you will crash headfirst against the glass. If you do enter and get to the light, as you are so anxious to do, don't you know that it will be so hot that it will burn you?"

"That makes no difference," still answered the moth. "It is light, and we follow it."

"Well, I call that a very stupid thing to do!" cried the boy, provoked at their stubbornness. "I tell you that you will be crushed or burned to death. Don't go near it."

But without paying any attention to his warning, on flew the insects right toward the window.

"Oh, oh!" cried several of them who had not watched carefully enough where they were going and had flown into the wall of the house instead of through the window, as they had intended. "We have broken our wings; we are lost!" and the poor things fell to the ground. Peter felt sorry for them, but their brothers paid no heed to their cries, and pushed and shoved each other in their hurry to reach that bright spot in the darkness.

Moon-Moth was among the first to fly through the window, which luckily was open, and into the room, but he must have been a bit dazed by the brilliancy of the light, for he crashed into the table upon which the lamp

Revival Services Are Continuing

Hoover Heights Meetings Gather Force And Interest; Rev. Scripture Preaches

Good interest continues in the revival services being held at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle, Morris street. Several selections were played on the marionette accompanied by the band, outdoors last evening just previous to the service inside.

The service opened with a lively song service by the congregation with Mr. Case leading. The Gospel Messengers then gave another delightful half hour of gospel music, giving a large number of vocal selections which touched the hearts of the audience very much.

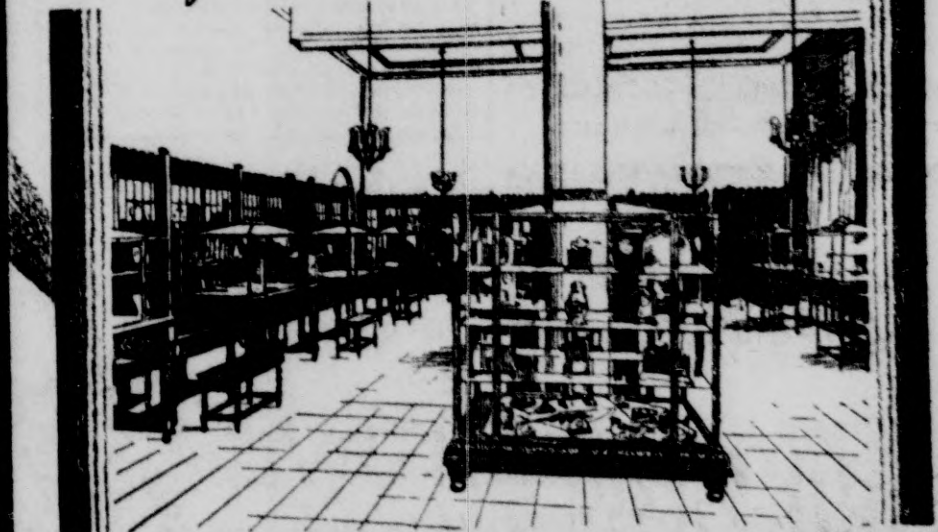

Rev. Scripture preached a very helpful sermon on "Acquaintance With God." His text was taken from Job 32:21, "Acquaint now thyself with him

(God) and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee." He showed from God's own book, the Bible, that man can be acquainted with God, can know God. Yea, unless man thus knows God he has not been born again, for Jesus said "And this is eternal life, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." The preacher laid much stress on the fact that we should come to this acquaintance now. The result would be peace and all good. Several responded to the preacher's invitation to become acquainted now with God. This evening the sermon will be "God's Appointments With Man." The Gospel Messengers will continue to furnish music.

They have convicted a murderer in Chicago, which suggests a patriotic protest against the disloyalty of jurists which confirm evil reports of killings in the much maligned old home town. —The Springfield, Illinois State Journal.

Pigeon Racing Still Holds Interest Here

Despite Fact Radio And Wireless Have Replaced The Birds As Messengers

Numerous Pigeon Races Held Recently—Local Birds Perform Well

Despite the fact that radio and wireless are displacing the pigeon as message carriers, interest in pigeon breeding for racing purposes continues to grow.

Several local pigeon fanciers have some unusual birds. Thomas Turner of North Cedar street has over a hundred homing pigeons in his loft. W. H. Cooper of South Jefferson street has about 50 fine blooded birds. There are a number of other people in Lawrence county who keep the birds, but there is no organization of pigeon fanciers.

W. H. Cooper is a member of the Youngstown Pigeon Club, of which there are about 20 members. Every Sunday the members take some of the birds to cities different distances from the home lofts. One Sunday the birds will be sent to Shreve, O., a little over 90 miles from the starting place. The next time they will race home from Mansfield, O., over 114 miles from the home loft. Next, to Marion, O., 148 miles, then to Sidney, 205 miles, and so on to Hays City, 1,015 miles from home.

"I begin training a pigeon when it is about three months old," answered Mr. Cooper to a question of the writer. "The pigeon is taken one mile from the loft the first time. It is left to find its way home. If it gets lost it is just as well, because the pigeon is not worth the trouble of raising if it cannot fly one mile to home."

The next day the bird is taken farther, and the next day still farther, according to Mr. Cooper. Pigeon training requires much effort and patience. Everything isn't left to the "homing instinct". If a bird is untrained, the homing instinct is of no practical use.

Mr. Cooper has several varieties of birds. Included are Gurnays and Logans. The female lays two eggs about every five weeks. The eggs hatch in 17 days. When a week or two old a metal identification band is slipped over the foot of the pigeon, onto the ankle, Mr. Cooper stated.

Thomas Turner of Cedar street belongs to the Beaver Valley Club at Rochester. There are from 40 to 45 members of the racing pigeon club. The "homers" are entered regularly in races and the owners find it an interesting and most fascinating sport. Mr. Turner has been a pigeon fancier for several years.

This spring, in a race home from Coshocton, O., in which 10,000 birds were entered, the entries of Mr. Turner separated from the flock and flew in a straight line of flight to their loft in this city. As pigeons have a tendency to follow leaders in a flock, it is remarkable that young, newly trained birds such as Mr. Turner's entries in the race could separate and come their own way.

Often pigeons are lost when they are released in bad weather. The Beaver Valley Club entered a number of young pigeons which were hatched from eggs last March or April, in a 300-mile race recently, in which very good time was made—300 miles in six hours and eight minutes. Immediately after this race 240 birds were entered in a 500-mile race. They were liberated in bad weather conditions last Tuesday. Only five have returned to their lofts.

Youthful Gang Of Auto Thugs Nabbed By Franklin Police

(International News Service) FRANKLIN, Pa., Nov. 5.—Six boys, ranging from 12 to 16 years of age, are being held here today for Pittsburgh authorities following their arrest here yesterday charged with stealing automobiles.

Chief of Police Marion Sheffer surprised the lads when they were about to make away with a machine in Franklin after driving here in a car they are said to have stolen in Pittsburgh and abandoned here.

Fall To Lose His 'Tres Rios' Ranch

350,000-Acre Homestead In New Mexico To Be Sold For Debt

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—"Tres Rios," the vast ranch in New Mexico on which Albert B. Fall hoped to spend his declining days, will soon be lost to him.

It is to be sold to pay off Fall's obligations, his friends revealed today. The former secretary of interior, now under sentence to a year in jail and $100,000 fine for conviction of bribery in connection with Elk Hills (Cal.) naval oil leases, not only is shattered in health but shattered in fortune as well, it was learned.

Fall plans to return to El Paso, Tex., to a house his wife owns in her own name, early next week. His dream of establishing himself on the "Tres Rios" domain of some 350,000 acres, said to be one of the most picturesque spots in all the southwest wonderland, has collapsed.

Doheny Buys Ranch. Some time ago the great ranch was sold under the sheriff's hammer and Edward L. Doheny bid it in, to keep others from acquiring it. Now it is to be sold whenever a fair price can be secured and out of the sale Fall hopes to be able to repay Doheny the $300,000 he spent in taking the ranch over and also the $100,000 which he says Doheny gave him as a loan, but which brought about his conviction on a charge of bribery.

There may be something left to add to Fall's small estate, but no fortune for the former cabinet officer of the Harding administration whose name flared prominently in the "oil scandals" of Teapot Dome and Elk Hills.

Friends of Fall declare that it was his ambition to acquire the vast ranch that led him into all the oil scandals.

Recommend Railroad Be Given Right To Contract New Line

Pittsburgh And West Virginia Railroad Seek Permission To Build Short-Line

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Examiners of the interstate commerce commission today recommended that the Pittsburgh and West Virginia railroad be authorized to construct a branch line six miles long, extending from a point on the Connellsville extension near its crossing at Pigeon Creek, down the valley of Pigeon creek to a connection with the Donora Southern, known as Baird.

This new branch is related to the Connellsville extension, now under construction. That line is to extend from a point on the West Side Belt Line to Connellsville, Pa. Its primary object is to effect connection with the Western Maryland at Connellsville, thus giving the Pittsburgh and West Virginia an outlet to the east without using the rails of a competing road, and with the line of the Western Maryland on the east and the Wheeling and Lake Erie and its connections on the west, to form a new through route between Baltimore and the Middle West.

The proposed branch line will be single track, but built for heavy loads. Its estimated cost is $1,397,030.

The examiners told the commission to deny authorization for the proposed branch would deprive the Connellsville extension of one of the principal sources of the traffic it was designed to serve.

George Zerner Is Recovering

George E. Zerner of 512 Reis street, who was injured in an automobile accident Saturday evening on the Harlansburg road, is resting easily today in the Jameson Memorial hospital. His injuries are responding to treatment and no permanent effects are anticipated.

In driving towards New Castle, Mr. Zerner's car slipped on the edge of the wet macadam and overturned. As it overturned his left arm was caught and badly fractured in two places and also lacerated. Several of the passengers in the car with him were bruised and shocked by the accident.

Runs Into Auto; Faces Charges

James Watt, was arrested last night by Officers Moore and Thomas on South Jefferson street, while operating his machine in a rather uncertain manner. He was found to be under the influence of liquor, according to the police authorities, and this morning was taken before Alderman J. Lee Cooper, where he was charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. He was arrested after he had run into and damaged the car of Joseph Biondi of 209 South Jefferson street.

Dr. Appel Warns State Hunters To Be Careful

"Thousands of Pennsylvanians are now enjoying their annual tramp in the state's forests on the trail of elusive game. Most of them will be successful in their quest, a number will get hurt, some will get killed and a few may contract typhus," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"In the first place, if every hunter would observe the fundamental rules concerning fire-arms, the casualties and deaths could be eliminated. These involve 'breaking' unloading guns or placing them 'on safety' when climbing over walls and fences; carrying the gun so it will point towards the ground several feet ahead; keeping cool if game suddenly appears; never shooting in the direction of other hunters within possible range. And, in general, using ordinary care and caution at all times.

"In the second place, if every hunter would appreciate that a risk exists in carelessly skinning rabbits or otherwise handling their carcasses typhus, which still is a rare disease in Pennsylvania, would not get a chance to do any damage.

"About fifteen years ago this disease was definitely classified by scientists working on the Pacific Coast. It is occasioned by a germ which invades the body through sores or cuts on the hands. The malady frequently manifests itself suddenly, and characteristically by headache, vomiting, chills, aching pains, sweating, prostration and fever. The active stage of the disease lasts from two to three weeks during which weakness, loss of weight, recurring chills, sweats and prostration are noted, as also are ulcerations occurring at the site of infection and the developing of 'wax kernels' in the affected region.

"It follows that even though it is a rare infection, all rabbits should be 'handled with care', though only a very small proportion of them are hosts to the typhus germ. Evidence of the infection in the rabbit is exhibited by small white spots on the liver. It may be added that cooking the meat kills the organism rendering it perfectly safe for human consumption.

"To be careful in handling fire-arms and rabbits is little to ask in return for a safe and pleasant trip in the woods. Enjoy the forests, delight in the zest of the hunt, but be on guard. Thus avoid the possibility of death, accident and typhus."

EXCHANGE WORKERS ENJOY DAY'S RESPITE

Business Situation In America Is Reported Improved—Public Gets Lesson

By W. S. COLEMAN
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Another well-earned day of rest for stock exchange workers and their armies of efficient helpers is afforded by the closing, not only of the stock markets today, but the banks, clearing houses, commodity exchanges and most of the whole-sale and retail mercantile houses. Wall Street clerks and cashiers will be bending over their books all day, in another desperate effort to clear the decks for tomorrow.

By action of the governors of the stock exchange, the trading hours of the big board were reduced this week to a total of 14, embracing a full day on Monday. The election holiday on Tuesday, three hours each on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and a shut-down Saturday. Normally the week contains 27 trading hours, five for each of the full sessions and two on Saturday.

Chaotic Conditions.
Yesterday, after a three-day shut-down, chaotic conditions prevailed in many of the big trading offices. It was still impossible for thousands of small traders to edge their way near enough to the brokers' windows either to place an order or to receive information as to "how they stood" on the books. Lack of information of this kind is a considerable handicap to these speculators and it is to the interest of brokers and traders alike to compare records as promptly as possible in order to avoid confusion in the future.

The stock market gave another demonstration, on the reopening entirely contrary to the expectation of many of the "wise ones" in Wall Street and elsewhere. Instead of the further sky-rocketing of speculative stocks, prices slipped off 2 to 15 points.

The explanation of this apparent stubbornness was plain to those who appreciate the mechanics of the big market. Thousands of professionals and outside traders who had purchased stocks at the low prices of Tuesday and Wednesday were ready to take their profits, and, without naming prices specifically, offered their stocks for sale at Monday's opening. The dribbling odd-lot buy-orders of Mr. John Q. Public, which stirred up so much enthusiasm in bullish circles, were insignificant when matched against the thousand-share lots of the professionals and big interests in the speculative markets. Those who placed "market" buying orders blindly, at the opening, received a better "break" than they themselves had expected, and the favorable basis on which stocks were distributed to these investors and speculators offers good ground for the expectation of a firm and steady market in the last two months of the year.

There has been a great benefit to American trade and industry by the releasing of approximately two billion dollars of bank credit and outside money loans from the call loan market. These funds, which were by the best banking opinion seriously misplaced, will now be free to enter into business and industrial activities of various kinds, to be "useful around the place" instead of forming the underpinning of an unhealthy inflation of speculative stock prices.

From every standpoint the business situation has improved, but those who think they can make money by rushing into the stock market with their eyes closed still have a great deal to learn. Most of the "easy money" of the last three years has evaporated, and the old Wall Street maxim about the public being "able to make money but unable to keep it" is as true to fact today as it was fifty years ago.

Rebekahs Hold District Meeting

State Officers Give Address On Lodge Work At Meeting Here

About 250 members of the Rebekah lodges of Lawrence county held a district meeting in the I. O. O. F. building Monday evening. There were visiting members present from Butler, Beaver and Mercer counties.

The state assembly officers, Mrs. R. Mary Fowden, president of Chester, Pa., secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Sloane of Philadelphia, Pa., and treasurer, Mrs. Martha R. Tarry of Kingston, Pa., were present and gave talks on the different works of the lodge in all parts of the state.

Lodge work was exemplified by the Lawrence county lodges in a very efficient manner and the Arwidia Rebekahs of Enon Valley conferred the degree of Rebekah on a class in a very beautiful way.

Mrs. Lucy Pettitt, district deputy president of Lawrence county presided at the meeting and was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers by her installing team. The state officers were also presented with gifts in appreciation of the work they have done for the local lodge.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

State Officer Throws Hat In

One Harrisburg Office Holder Is Out For Another Term

CAPITAL EMPLOYEES EYE SPRING ELECTION

(From News Bureau)
HARRISBURG, Nov. 5.—While most political leaders desire to wait a short time after today's election before plunging into next spring's campaign there is one candidate for state-wide office who intends running for re-election. He is James F. Woodward, secretary of internal affairs, who has held that office for three terms.

Secretary Woodward in that historic campaign of 1926 when the battle lines were drawn for governor and U. S. senator had the good fortune to be chosen on both slates. He easily came through a winner without much campaigning.

His formal announcement is not expected to be made for some time at least but he has been telling his friends that he desires a fourth term and will be a candidate for re-election. There is some talk around that capital that Captain Frederic A. Godcharles, state librarian, will be a candidate for the office to succeed Woodward. Godcharles is a former deputy secretary of the Commonwealth.

The chief interest so far as the hundreds of state employees is concerned is who will be agreed upon for the governorship. Even before scores of the workers went to their homes for this election they were always willing to take time off and discuss next spring's gubernatorial race. Until the senate acts on the Vane case there is little expectation of interest in the developments from the state leaders on the governorship.

Almost a million people now—by word of mouth recommendation—seem to have found complete relief through this new discovery of treatment by inunction. Daniel Boone's Knife Is Found In Indiana (International News Service) SULLIVAN, Ind., No. 5.—What is believed to be a hunting knife owned by Daniel Boone, mighty hunter of pioneer days, was found by James H. Willis in an ancient hollow tree near here.

The knife, which is of pewter, and has a blade encrusted with years of rust, bears the inscription, "Da. Boone."

The great Indiana hunter and hunter was believed to have been in Indiana late in the 18th century. Recently an Indiana farmer found a turtle that had "D. Boone" inscribed on its back.

The finding of the knife gives evidence that Boone once roamed through Sullivan County. The ages have left their toll on the relic. The pewter sheath has deteriorated until it is full of tiny holes.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f.o.b.) price when comparing automobile values. General Motors dealers' delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery, and the charge for any additional accessories that may be desired.

(NAME OF CAR)	(COLOR)
(Model No.)	(Body Style)
LIST PRICE (f.o.b.)	$ 300.00
FREIGHT AND DELIVERY	25.00
DELIVERED PRICE	$ 325.00
ACCESSORIES (Not included in the List Price)
TOTAL DELIVERED PRICE	$ 325.00

These prices are for cash. Purchase may be financed on convenient monthly payments if desired.

This is the standard price tag used by General Motors dealers to show what makes up the delivered price of their new cars.

List Price. The f.o.b. price advanced by the factory.

Freight and Delivery. An authorized amount to cover the freight charges paid by the dealer and the cost of unloading, inspecting, supplying fuel and oil—preparing the car for delivery to you.

Accessories. A charge for any additional accessories that may be purchased.

Frankness about automobile prices

THERE is a difference between the list (f.o.b.) price of a new automobile and the price you pay the dealer.

What makes that difference?

General Motors dealers tell you frankly on their standard price tag. You see exactly what you are paying for freight and delivery, for additional accessories that may be desired.

Nothing is hidden. Nothing is added. There is no extra charge to permit a seemingly better trade-in offer. There is no extra charge to cover advertising, etc. The tag tells all.

Make this tag your guide in comparing automobile values. Look beyond the list price. Find out what is added by the dealer to make up the delivered price. For it is the delivered price that you pay.

There is Campfire Fragrance in these savory slices of Sunnyfield Bacon

Lb. 35c

Sunnyfield Bacon is always good. Its delightful snap and zest are reliably present in every season of the year. This uniform goodness is the result of the careful attention accorded its preparation.

Sunnyfield Bacon is always the choicest bacon—cut of tender corn-fed porkers. Its even streaking of bright red lean and firm white fat is evidence of its meat quality. It is sugar cured for 25 days, and slowly smoked over smouldering hickory logs. From the curing and smoking it gets its delicious flavor and fragrance. The hickory and sugar-sweetness of broiling Sunnyfield Bacon will whet the duldest of appetites.

Sunnyfield Bacon reaches the consumer fresh from the smoking. It has all its appetizing flavor and nutritive goodness when placed in your market basket by the A&P storeman. A&P's remarkable new Time-Control Plan sees to that.

Cook Sunnyfield until it is crisp or serve it barely browned and still elastic, according to individual preference. You'll find in its savory freshness, a suggestion of campfire health.

Restrictions On Game Shipments

Postmasters have been warned by a general order from the post office department against accepting for shipment by parcel post package containing the bodies, or furs or plumage of game animals or birds which have been killed or offered for shipment in violation of the laws of the State.

Parcels containing game which may lawfully be shipped are not acceptable for mailing unless they are properly marked and otherwise conform to the game laws of the State, the announcement adds.

I used to get so tired after a few hours' work that I was even afraid in my own house in the daytime. I didn't care if I lived or died. Soon To Reveal
Poison Murders

(International News Service) LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—Poison murders may be revealed by chemical analysis of a single hair, Dr. Lewis Gunther, of the University of California at Los Angeles, announced today.

Research by Dr. Gunther had revealed a simple laboratory method by which arsenic poisoning could be determined through examination of a hair.

The process first was discovered by a German physician in 1860, but the records were lost, Dr. Gunther said.

Criminologists were greatly interested in the rediscovery.

The Parent Problem

Persons Who Can't Stand Children Making Noise Should Change Attitude

Yesterday we saw what fools we are when we command the child, "Be still." Now let us observe ourselves as fools again when we tell him to keep quiet.

While I am writing this about 24 children, ranging in ages from 5 to 10, are having a glorious time on a vacant lot near by. Their voices are pretty high and loud at times, and some disagreements are apparent. Fine, wonderful! Real educational! Besides the pleasure and the exercise in open air and bright sunshine, they are learning to get along together, waiting ready for more serious things in life.

They do not disturb me, because I think they ought to make such noise. Indeed, they are helping me to write this article. No noise, no fun; no noise, little enjoyment; no noise, little education.

Some other adults of the neighborhood may be annoyed greatly. If they are, they just need to acquire a better attitude toward children. They should do so for their own comfort, as well as for the children's. Anyway, you might as well learn to get along with what you cannot change. If you can change yourself and enjoy the natural noises of children, see how much discomfort you avoid, how much personal pleasure you enjoy!

There is no way to keep the children permanently quiet. Oh, yes, you can bring them indoors, put them into rooms alone. But pretty soon they will get into trouble, becoming irritable, stubborn, whiney. Wouldn't we all rather hear voices which are gleeful, even with occasional quarreling, than crying voices and complaining ones?

"You children make my head ache with your noise," mother says sometimes, perhaps, to the children in the house, complaining in a whining, ugly voice. But they had not meant to disturb anybody.

"Keep quiet I want to read," says dad, as he lights his pipe and props his feet up, with his face hidden in a book or magazine.

But the trucks and cars go rumbling by with their screaming sirens, screeching brakes. They do not make mother's head ache, nor interfere with father's reading, although they go on incessantly and more loudly, as a rule, than any noise by the children. Dad and mother expect them to be noisy. They feel no occasion to scold or to punish the drivers. So we parents learn not to hear the voices of the street.

But the children! They are different. They are our children. They should have regard for us. They should not make noises. Therefore, when they do we get a headache or our reading is disturbed.

Tomorrow: Don't Bother Me.

Two Stolen Cars Are Recovered

Two stolen cars were recovered in a rather unusual manner in the last twenty-four hours, according to the report at the city police station.

When Martin Ketola of West Leasure avenue, went to get the machine in which he had gone to the Jolly Bowl last night and had left parked on West State street, he found the machine missing, but a few feet away was a car of the same make, color and general appearance but bearing a different license number.

Officer Thomas Lynch was found and consulted and it was found that the car left behind was that of Carmen Cook 1334 Croton avenue, stolen the previous night from in front of the New Castle hospital. The thieves had evidently changed cars. This machine was turned over to the police and a report of the other missing car made.

The Ketola car was found later on Lawrence street by Officer Lynch. It had been abandoned there by the thieves.

Say Bootlegger Tried To Frame Banker In Sharon

Witnesses Assert They Were Offered Money To Testify Falsely Against Man

MERCER, Nov. 5. Claim of P. G. Zubach, manager of the foreign department of the McDowell National bank of Sharon, charged with fraudulent conversion by Frank Petras, convicted bootlegger of Farrell that the charges against him were a frame-up were substantiated by evidence submitted at the trial here this morning.

Zubach charges that the trouble grew out of friction among members of the Croatian club of Farrell of which he was a member, following his election as a delegate to a national convention. His arrest took place two days before he was to leave for the convention.

Witnesses testified in court that they were offered money by Petras to testify against Zubach. One witness John Mazalin further asserted that he had been offered $1,000 to shoot County Detective Sam Leyshock in July 1927 and that Petras had offered to provide the rifle with which to commit the act.

Nick Kuncich of Farrell testified that Petras had offered him $500 to "fix" Zubach by false testimony.

Petras charged Zubach with accepting $1,000 to have his case nolle prossed by District Attorney McKay and County Detective Leyshock and that Zubach double-crossed him with the result that he was convicted and served a term in the workhouse.

Chief of Police Jack Slazak of Farrell testified in court this morning that he would not believe Petras under oath.

Many character witnesses appeared for Zubach.

Beware Of Strange Real Estate Men

Properties In Surrounding Towns
Swindle

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 5.—With five members of alleged fake realtors under arrest, officers are searching for two others, said to be ring-leaders in Pittsburgh and Youngstown, O. Complaints have been made to the authorities which led the latter to believe that the receipts of the "real estate" men in Fayette, Washington and Greene counties average nearly $100,000 a month. It is alleged that the "realtors" have "sold" hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of real estate in Sharon, Youngstown, Warren, Steubenville and other parts of Ohio to many families in Fayette county but have failed to deliver deeds.

A. Bonnacco, who is being held under $7,500 bail before Alderman Robert W. Wright, on a false pretense charge, is alleged to have sold a Youngstown, O. property to Mike Stanza, of Gates, for $12,000. The victim says that Bonnacco took him to Youngstown, showed him the handsome home and said although worth $25,000 it could be purchased for $12,000. Stanza says he paid $5,100 with the promise that the remainder of the amount would be carried by mortgage. It is claimed that neither salesman nor the firm he represented owned the property "sold" to Stanza.

Priests have been asked to warn their congregations against any strange real estate men.

When Babies CRY

Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or it may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

Mary And Doug Will Not Appear In Same Pictures

(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 5.—"The Taming of the Shrew" is the first and last motion picture in which the names of Fairbanks and Pickford will appear together.

"Doug" and Mary, in a joint interview given here, declared they will never again act together in a movie—talkie or silent.

Both refused to give any particular reason for the decision. Fairbanks said the feminine side of the firm had ruled it, and that was all there was to it.

Chicago's Grand Opera Shrine Is Opened On Monday

The audience itself, resplendent in the silks and jewels of evening dress, outdid the pageantry of Verdi's "Aida," the opera chosen to open the Chicago Civic Opera's company's eighth season.

Special Music At Primitive Church

Special music will augment the services beginning this evening in the Primitive Methodist church and conducted by Rev. H. Sweeten under the sponsorship of the young people's societies.

Music this evening will be furnished by Mr. Burrows of Ellwood City and Wednesday evening Rev. T. J. Keegan will furnish music on his musical saw and piano accordion.

A recent survey at Pitt University discloses the fact that an average "date" costs the Pitt man $3.75. Expenditures may vary from a "crash" which often costs from $7 to $10 to a "drop in" which is at the expense of the one visited.

It is generally conceded that all expenses attached to a "date" are paid by the man. But the writer has heard several local young ladies remark, recently, that the expenses of stepping out are being paid for, more and more, by the weaker sex. It is still the man who chooses which girl he wishes to call on—that is, he thinks he does.

To every $3.75 paid by the fellow, according to the local young ladies, the girl pays $5.00. A marcel is necessary, so they say, and a manicure and a facial. Silk hose never last more than one or two times, so they must be counted. And a vanity case is always forgotten and left in the boy's friends pocket—it is never returned. Now get a pencil and figure this up. No matter how you do it, it will add somewhere near five dollars. This is not including the price of the piles of rouge and lipstick used, and is some cases cigarettes.

Somewhere in New York there must be a superman. Or how did he find out that there are 32,000 speakies in that town?—The Paterson Press-Guardian.

Present styles demand
an inconspicuous
sanitary pad

CAN you imagine any form of sanitary protection under present-day gowns except Kotex? Kotex... with its absence of bulk and clumsiness... its round, tapered corners that assure you it is always inconspicuous.

Light, cool, dainty

Kotex is made of Cellucotton absorbent wadding, an amazing substance that absorbs five times more than cotton.

Perhaps the greatest proof of Kotex' superiority is this: 85% of the country's leading hospitals use Kotex filler for surgical dressings. Doctors prefer it for its absorbency, its comfort and purity.

The column at the right tells other reasons why women prefer Kotex.

- KOTEX IS SOFT...
- 1—Not a deceptive softness, that soon packs into chafing hardness. But a delicate, lasting softness.
 - 2—Safe, secure... keeps your mind at ease.
 - 3—Fastidious... the sign of true daintiness.
 - 4—In hospitals... Kotex is the identical material used by surgeons in 85% of the country's leading hospitals.

Free Schools For Poor Egyptians

Ministry Of Education Takes Steps To Provide Assistance

(International News Service)
CAIRO, Nov. 5.—Free education for poor students has just been decided upon by the Ministry of Education of Egypt.

Previously no education has been forth-coming for those unable to pay well for it, and always the greater part of the native population has been extremely illiterate.

Only the chosen few are able to read and to write Arabic which is probably the most complicated and difficult language on earth. Most of the Arabs do not speak at all grammatically in their native tongue.

While the Ministry of Education feels that compulsory education is yet a long way off, the authorities believe this step to be one progressing toward that ideal.

Under the new arrangement, if a man does not earn more than $600 a year, his sons will be admitted into the primary schools free.

If he earns $1200 a year he must pay tuition for one son, while the rest go in free. If he earns $1800 he pays for two, and so on in the same ratio.

Women, of course, are rarely given educations here, unless very well born and of a liberal family.

Student Killed When Hit By Auto

CLAYSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—John Morrow, 14, a freshman in the Claysville high school, was killed last night in front of the school building by an automobile driven by Robert Hilton, 18, a junior in the same school.

The two boys had been attending basketball practice in the high school building. When it was finished, Hilton left and got his car, in which he drove past the building as Morrow stepped out from under some trees into the path of the machine.

Local Physician Will Be Speaker

Members Of County Medical Society Gather For Meeting Thursday

Dr. Z. N. Stutz of this city will be the chief speaker at the Lawrence County Medical association's regular November meeting on Thursday evening, November 7 at 8:30 p. m. The meeting will be held at the Y. M. C.
A.

For his subject Dr. Stutz has chosen "Causes and Instances of Leucorhea."

At this meeting the room committee will have a recommendation concerning the association's meeting place during the next year.

Eighty At Joint Hi-Y Gathering

Boys From Towns Around Are Guests Of Local Club;
Special Program

Members of the New Castle, Grove
City, New Wilmington and Slippery Rock Hi-Y Clubs held a joint meeting at the local Y. M. C. A. banquet room last night.

The trio of the Second Baptist church was present and gave several selections which the boys enjoyed very well.

Five boys were received into the respective clubs at the induction ceremony held by the local club as a part of the meeting. The service is very impressive and left a feeling in the heart of each of the 80 boys present.

L. A. Pickett, student secretary of the state Y. M. C. A., gave the address of the evening and it was a fitting
one. He pointed out how the boys could live their lives to the best advantage.

Man Acquitted Of Killing His Mother To End Suffering

(International News Service)
DRAGUIGNAN, Var, France, Nov.
5.—Once again the courts of France have replied in the affirmative on the question whether a man has the right to kill a fellow human in order to end the sufferings of illness.

Richard Corbett, 30-year-old Englishman was acquitted of a charge of first degree murder growing out of his slaying his mother last May. Corbett testified his mother was incur-ably afflicted with cancer, and that her suffering was unbearable.

Wealthy Chicago Realtor Kills Self By Poison

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Stanley Hoffman, wealthy real estate broker, despondent for the past two years because of the shooting of a customer in his office, according to police, took poison here Monday and died a few hours later. The customer attacked Hoffman with a revolver during a quarrel. Hoffman shot him, police said, and was later vindicated by a coroner's jury.

Ellwood Man To Speak At Meeting

ZELIENOPLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—Arthur
V. Landgren of Pittsburgh will call the 74th convention of the Pittsburgh District Luther League to order in the English Lutheran church at Zeleno-ple next Saturday morning. Representatives from more than a hundred young people's societies of Allegheny, ties will attend. Rev. C. W. Barnett

day. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. L. J. Baker, Ellwood City, and by Dr. Franklin F. Fry, executive secretary of the Lutheran Board of American Missions of New York City.

Love Triangle Is Ended By Tragedy

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The old story of the married man who loved the pretty wife of another, ended here Monday in the same old, old tragedy
when Peter Marziano, 32, florist, was shot and killed at the wheel of his automobile.

Two hours later, William Marzano
confessed to police he had killed Marziano, because the latter had
"threatened to kill him and his wife," because pretty 23-year-old Mrs. Marzano repulsed his attentions.

MAJESTIC is the only concern in the world with such study. Under expert guidance, Majestic has literally been able to improve the unimprovable. By constantly checking and rechecking every minute operation of produc-

were thought impossible to attain.

MAJESTIC'S POLICY has always been to pass on to its leadership by offering the public sensational savings in the purchase of the best radio set that money can buy.

Note these new low prices, and remember that you are buying a Majestic set, the standard of value, at the price

joyment from your Majestic set, and for the perfect

Musicians Play At East Brook Church

Group Of New Castle

Members of the East Brook M. E.

was devoted almost entirely to musical presentations.

Those in the New Castle orchestra
from the First Methodist congregation were Miss Mary Long, Miss Eleanor Burnsides, Miss Margaret Womer,
William Watkins, Robert Gwin and Kenneth Myers.

Featuring were piano solos, vocal solos and different duets.

Michigan University Upset Over Finding Of "Bootleg Ring"

One Student Under Arrest,
Two Hunted As "Ring-Leaders" In Booze
Syndicate

College Officials Promise Drastic Action When Facts Are Presented
Them

(International News Service.)
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 5.—Information linking a host of individuals in Michigan's campus bootlegging business was in the possession of authorities today as police continued their search for the two students who are believed to be the heads of the "ring."

One student, Harold McKee, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was in the county jail today, unable to raise the $2,500 bond set by Judge Bert Fry following his arrest on a charge of possession of liquor.

Two others for whom warrants have been issued, are Alexander Gow of Windsor, Ont., and Charles Fitzpatrick, of Flushing, N. Y.

President Alexander G. Ruthven
expressed concern over the rum disclosure and promised the university would take "full cognizance" of it as soon as the facts are made public officially.

Two Students Flee
Gow and Fitzpatrick disappeared

from their rooms in Fletcher Hall, privately owned dormitory on the Michigan campus, shortly before local police raided the bootlegging headquarters and seized evidence involving others as purchasers of the liquor.

The bootlegging business was conducted by private telephone from a room on the third floor of Fletcher Hall, it was explained by police. The students received orders from fraternities and individuals, supplying them with "good stuff in a hurry."

The whisky, wine and brandy seized by police was discovered in the attic of the dormitory. The evidence taken from the room of the students consisted of names and addresses of their customers.

in your car! Use this better high test gasoline that starts cold engines fast, without that exasperat-

Sinclair Aircraft Gasoline produces a carburetted mixture that fires readily on the first turning over of the engine. It insures complete combustion in a cold running engine and maintains power output of the engine after it has warmed up. It reduces the use of the choke, eliminates engine balk and gas locks, preventing jerky operation. It decreases the dilution of your motor oil.

This gasoline meets the specifications of the

New Castle will be a member of section three of the W. P. I. A. L. The Washington and Wilkesburg games will be in preparation for the league games. Try To Identify Theater Suicide

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 5.—Three and a half hours after he fired a revolver bullet through his head in the Dome Theater, an unidentified man died at St. Elizabeth's hospital. The only clue to the man's identity is his belt buckle, bearing the initials "F." He was about 35. In the small entry way leading to the wash room, located off the stairway to the balcony, the man shot himself Sunday. The theater was crowded, but the patrons did not notice the report. Some of the clothing worn by the man carried New York store labels. He had $148 on his person. He was 5 feet 8 inches tall, with brown eyes and dark hair and wore a blue suit.

Willie Davies, Charleroi, Loses To Black Hill; Wolgast Beats McCoy; Peters Loses

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The best flyweight in the United States and the champion of France, Eugene Huat, clinched in Madison Square Garden here last evening. It was the first of an elimination series to determine the flyweight championship of the world. Huat handed Izzy Schwartz, present looked upon champion by the National Boxing association, a neat thrashing in ten rounds of the feature bout. Schwartz never had a chance with the "Frog". Willie Davies, Charleroi, Pa., was beaten by Cuban Black Bill, negro of New England, in another ten-rounder. Midget Wolgast, Pennsylvania flyweight champ, beat Johnny McCoy, Texas. Ruby Bradley, Boston, was too clever for Ernie Peters, Indian fighter of Chicago.

Marsters Leads Eastern Scorers

Al Marsters, Dartmouth Star Halfback, Seems Destined To Be High Scorer

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—With the season well along into the sixth and seventh games of the major college football schedules, Al Marsters of Dartmouth, Monday seemed headed for a new eastern individual scoring record. Although his team was defeated, the green ace scored a touchdown against Yale on Saturday to run his point total for the season to 108, some 43 ahead of his nearest rivals, Davidowitz of Lehigh and Morris of Haverford who have 63. Following these two men is Uansa of Pittsburgh, with ten touchdowns and one extra point for a total of 61. The Panther ace is a bare point ahead of Hickle of Bucknell. Sixth place on the list is held by Albie Booth, Yale's great back, with 56.

Jimmy McLarnin Defeats Mandell

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Jimmy McLarnin's rushing, smashing, aggressive attack is considered responsible today for his victory over Sammy Mandell, master boxer and lightweight champion of the world. Fox And Faella Give Burns Bout

Referee Eddie Kennedy Decides In Favor Of Firpo; News Gives Battle As Draw; Burns Two Pounds Overweight But Firpo Goes Through With Battle; Corsey Beats Mazoe; Severio Again Stops Reno; Boddas Outpoints Lance And Harry Thomas Wins Technical Knockout Over Murphy.

By ED FRITZ
Bill Jolly, the eminent connoisseur of Punch, last night at Jolly bowl served another pugilistic dish of modified murder for the edification of those who like to have their beef served rare. The dish was presented by the well known Henry Firpo, Cleveland puzzle, and Johnny Burns, the Portuguese-Italian, prominent middleweights. Burns was two pounds over the stipulated 160. Firpo tipped the scales at 158 1/2 and Burns at 162. The judges, Fox and Faella, gave their vote to Burns while Eddie Kennedy, who was a fighter and is listed as one of the country's best referees, awarded the decision to Firpo, but the judges' vote carried. The writer believes the fight, thrilling from start to finish, was a good draw.
Firpo kept his left hand in Burns' face throughout the fight and at times range excelled. At close quarters Burns excelled as he flashed often to the body. Firpo's right crashed once but many times on Burns' chin and Johnny's right uppercut found Henry's jaw several times. At one time during the fight Firpo jabbed Burns clear across the ring and in the ninth and tenth rounds proved so crafty he scarcely allowed Johnny to get out of his own corner. Burns landed a short right uppercut in the fifth that caught Henry flush on the jaw and drove him on the ropes but it came a few seconds before the bell ended the round.
Fighting Speeds Up.
Firpo had an edge going in the sixth with a closed left eye, but he stepped right along with Burns but Johnny took the session. Burns hammered Firpo intermittently around the body. Firpo's left worked overtime in the seventh and jabbed Burns into a corner. They slugged all over the ring in the eighth and when Johnny tried to lay Firpo in the ninth Firpo took the play and forced the fighting, kept poking his left to the face and scarcely permitted Johnny to leave his own corner. However, Burns was not idle, instead every time that Firpo jabbed with a left and tried to follow with a right Burns flashed with both hands to the body. He sometimes landed four blows without cessation. It was a round that made everybody's blood run red. The tenth was a blow for blow fight and they had to be parted after the last bell sounded for the fight to end.
To say that the decision was popular among the fair minded would be getting away from the facts. Some fans went to see Firpo battered to the floor and others travelled to the bowl to see Firpo chalk up another victory. They paid little attention to the reason why a fighter is given credit for something and why the points are deducted. It was a great fight between two grand battlers, boys who do not know what it means to back up, give mercy or ask quarter. Referee Kennedy performed brilliantly as a referee and the crowd, though highly excited was most orderly. It was a battle which fully lived up to the prediction made by the writer before the bout.

Severio Stops Reno.
Young Corsey, Canton, 129, took the decision from Martin Mazoeo, 127 1/2, a southpaw of Canton in a fast six round bout. They milled around the ring and showed the fans they knew something about their stuff but having seen the Al Reno-Louie Severio chapter in legalized assault and battery they had a task on their hands to satisfy some of the more blood-thirsty. Reno, weighing 134 was knocked out again by Louie Severio, weighing 132.

The Youngstown boy dropped Severio in the first for a count of eight but he weathered the storm and from then until the fifth round it was blow for blow. He weakened Al with a right to the jaw in the fourth and the Meadville chap nailed Reno with a right to the kidney in the fifth that dropped him for a count of 10. It was a great fight and Severio deserved ranking as a crafty kid with a hefty punch. Reno came here confident of taking Severio but last night was not

UNION TACKLES SLIPPERY ROCK AWAY, ON FRIDAY

Will Try To Prolong Unfeated Record; Stiff Practices Are Planned

On Friday, November 8, the undefeated Union high school football team will be called upon to travel to Slippery Rock to face what is expected to be one of the stiffest tests of the season.
The game with Slippery Rock will mark the last game away from home and Bessener will wind up the schedule on the following Friday at Scotland lane field.
Coach Boyd feels that the success of the entire season depends upon how the boys perform in the next two games. He is confident that his eleven will come out victorious if they display the same brand of football that has marked their progress so far and if no injuries crop up to handicap them in this week's preparation for the game.
Last year Union downed Slippery Rock by a 13-0 score and Coach Boyd will try to duplicate Coach Burnham's work of last year and repeat the trick. Most of this week's practice will consist of offensive work to a great extent, with forward passes and a varied running attack to confuse the strong Slippery Rock eleven.
In the Mercer game last week Union was badly crippled and most of the squad that turned out for practice Monday was nursing bruises received in the battle with the Mercer countians.

CIGAR TOBACCOS ARE THE FINEST IN YEARS

EVERY LA PALINA IS NOW MADE OF THESE SUPERFINE 1928 TOBACCOS

So...La Palinas are even richer and finer than ever before...

IN 1928 Nature made a world's record and produced the best tobacco crop in years.

The makers of La Palina bought millions of dollars worth. So every La Palina is made exclusively of 1928 Tobacco—aged, matured and cured to bring it to its best.

La Palina is America's largest selling high grade cigar (Over a Million a Day). But never in its history, which extends over 30 years, has it been possible to buy tobaccos for use in this cigar, as fine as those of the 1928 crop.

So La Palinas are better than they ever have been, and that means — "the best cigar that money can buy."

Try a La Palina today—the difference in taste, aroma, fragrance and mildness is instantly apparent.

Fat Girls! Here's A Tip For You

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses. Every morning take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat." Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system. At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure. Get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. or any drug store (lasts 2 months) with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.

Driver Arrested After Forcing Six Cars From Highway

BUTLER, Pa., Nov. 5.—After he is said to have crowded six cars from the Slippery Rock road, three miles north of Butler, Earl R. Seavy was arrested by Constable J. Lawrence Keister on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Seavy was taken before Alderman Carl G. Phillips after a physician had testified that he was intoxicated, and the alderman committed him to the county jail to await a hearing tomorrow morning.

Upon examining Seavy's identification and registration cards, Alderman Phillips discovered that he apparently maintained three residences, the cards indicating addresses in Clarion, Saegertown and Franklin.

The alderman said that Seavy had offered him a dollar bill if he would settle the case.

In the meantime, there doesn't seem to be enough money lying loose around the colleges to enable them to send emissaries over the Country to subsidize prospective members of the faculty.—The Charlotte N. C. News.

Success Marks Festival Under P. T. A. Auspices

West Side Folk Have Gala Time At Third Annual Party; Good Program

An attendance of three hundred or more persons and entertainment furnished a plenty combined to stamp the third annual Halloween festival sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association of the West Side school, held at the West Side building recently, as the merriest and most successful of the three.

The building was decorated for the evening and the committee in charge had left nothing untended that would in any way add to the festivities of the evening.

Featuring was the grand parade in which those who came masqueraded passed in review. Judges chose the winning costumes and prizes were presented by local merchants were given to them. The Gold Dust twins, two girls of the kindergarten department, won first honors.

A candy booth was also operated and a stand where hot dogs, pumpkin pie, cookies, doughnuts and ever so many other delicious treats might be obtained, functioned. Amusement was provided by the fish pond and other entertaining diversions in which one could participate.

The group also sang songs such as "O' King Cole" and others of that type.

General arrangements were in charge of a committee of which Miss Odette Hodgkinson was the chairman. Others who assisted were Mrs. Chauncey Davis, Mrs. Raymond Hillard, Mrs. Joseph Winger, Mrs. Fred Woods and Mrs. Charles Colnot.

Stock Exchanges Closed To-day For Election; Seek To Catch Up On Back Work

BULLISH HORNS BLUNTED MONDAY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Today, being election day, was another of those Stock Exchange "holidays" during which traders sat home and told each other how much they would have made—"if"—and brokerages employees put in their usual day's work trying to catch up on their accounts.

The market again did the unexpected yesterday and thereby blunted many bullish horns when prices dropped anywhere from 2 to 17 points.

But out of the gloom of the decline which was generally attributed to unloading of "support stock" which had been bought in last week's falling markets, there penetrated one ray of sunshine—to employees in the financial district, at any rate.

Only 6,202,930 shares changed hands during the five hour session which was orderly throughout and had all the earmarks of those seemingly far-away days which preceded last week's hectic session.

To further ease the strain on brokerage and exchange facilities, the hours of trading tomorrow, Thursday and Friday will be from 10 a. m. to one p. m. instead of to 3 p. m.

KONJOLA ENDS THIRTY YEARS OF SUFFERING

Business Man Tells Of Pleasing Experience With New And Different Medicine.

MR. ERNEST RITTER
"For thirty years I suffered from a most aggravating cough," said Mr. Ernest Ritter, 328 East Second Street, Erie, Penna. "At times this cough was loose; at others it was dry and hacking. I became sluggish and low in vitality. The cough seemed to sap my strength, and I became very nervous."

"Konjola lost no time in proving that at last I had found the medicine that my case required. My organs were cleansed and stimulated, and within a week I began to feel the results. After that the progress was steady, and when I had completed the seventh bottle the cough was no more, and I was feeling fine in every way. I cannot praise Konjola too highly."

Konjola is sold in New Castle, Pa., at Love & Megown drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

As an election day you could pick a lot worse than this. And for a November election day you couldn't pick 'em much better. Not too warm, not too cold, not wet, not cloudy. Just right for Mr. and Mrs. New Castle to step out and save the nation.

About once a year somebody recites an old English comic poem concerning politics, which goes something like this:

"Politics is such a lark,
Don't you know,
Just a nightmare in the dark,
Don't you know.
You perspire all day and night,
And when you have won the fight,
Why perhaps the wrong man's right,
Don't you know?"

A brief reminiscence in Friday night's issue concerning the old fashioned fruit and vegetable cellars started some of the folks to turning back in memory to those days. And after talking about it for half an hour this one question remained: "what has become of the swinging shelves?"

You remember them. Usually they were suspended from the ceiling at a point midway down the cellar steps. Here were loaded the immediate necessities from the storehouse in the cellar. A few glasses of jelly, a can of corned beef in case company came in hurriedly, a few jars of peaches and tomatoes, a couple of cans of condensed milk and perhaps a few rutabagas.

Down stairs in the shelves between the chimney were piled the winter stock, jellies and jams and canned beans and tomatoes and succotash and quince preserves, jars and bottles and cans. Apple butter by the gallon, and elderberry jelly that was a reminder of stained hands and tired legs back in September. Over in the corner stood the potato barrels with ten or fifteen bushels of spuds and nearly a couple of barrels of Baldwin's, wrapped up for the winter.

There was a standing rule on winter preserves. No jellies before Thanksgiving, and no apples before Christmas. No sense in using up winter supplies in the fall, and woe betide the kid who had jelly stains on his mouth in October.

Wonder what has become of that old swinging shelf idea? Folks don't seem to put up so much stuff any more. Perhaps they can buy it cheaper, but if they can, they can never expect to buy that flavor that went into homemade preserves.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severe cold epidemics.

From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make a pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Report Pennroad Buys P. And W. Va. Railway

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Railroad officials manifested keen interest today in an apparently authentic report that control of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia railway has been purchased by the Pennroad Corporation, an organization formed this year by the interests that control the Pennsylvania railroad.

The Pittsburgh and West Virginia road is regarded as a "key" line, of considerable strategic importance. Control of the line was acquired through the purchase of the holding of Frank E. and Charles F. Taplin, chairman and general counsel, respectively, of the road.

Secrecy Prevails
Secrecy marked the exchange of control. The deal injects a new element into the plans of the Baltimore and Ohio and the Chesapeake and Ohio railroads, which oppose the Pennsylvania in the eastern consolidation field.

This move of the Pennroad Corporation—the largest it has made—is construed as a blow at the Van Sweringen brothers.

Other moves were chiefly directed against the Baltimore and Ohio. The significance of the deal is due to the strategic importance of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia. The P. & W. Va., with the Wheeling and the Western Maryland, provides a connection to Baltimore and Norfolk.

Heavy Holdings
The P. & W. Va. has heavy holdings in the Wheeling. The latter road, however, is controlled by the Van Sweringens through stock now in the hands of a trustee.

AGENDA CLUB.
Thursday night at 8:30 members of the Agenda club will gather in their club rooms in the Pearson building for their regular meeting. The club is composed of a group of New Castle men about 15 or 20 in all.

Don't Shoot At Pole Insulators

Several days ago New Wilmington experienced considerable radio interference, according to Louis Round of the New Castle Electric Company, and an investigation determined the cause.

Boys or men had hurled stones or shot at the glass insulators and rain having fallen on it, seeped on the wires with interference results.

Rifle Club Will Shoot Wednesday

Members of the Service Men's Rifle Club will hold their weekly shoot in the armory on Neshannock avenue Wednesday evening at 7:30. All members of the organization or others who wish to participate are asked to be present promptly.
